ABOUT THE LIBERTY SERIES

The Liberty Series is a part of the Liberty Program. Created by the Foundations of the Union League (Youth Work, Scholarship and Abraham Lincoln), it is a platform that brings the concepts, ideals and philosophies of liberty to a wide audience. The program has in two parts. The Liberty Weekend is a weekend program for college-aged students in the Greater Philadelphia region. The Liberty Series is a lecture-format, season of program with scholars, thought-leaders and policy makers on ideas and issues essential to understanding and promoting liberty. The Liberty Series was named the Jack M. Templeton Liberty Series in 2017, in memory of longtime League member and patriot, Jack Templeton. The gift was made possible by Jack's widow, Pina Templeton, honoring his legacy and his love of continuing the discussion about these important concepts.
