

The Union League Legacy Foundation

About the Exhibits

The Sir John Templeton Heritage Center was completed in 2011, and created a much-needed space to be open to the public, and host exhibits. The exhibits are presented in the Dr. Russell P. Heuer Room, and focus on the Union League's history and related histories, as well as topics that relate to the mission and values of The Union League of Philadelphia.

A catalog of exhibits since 2011:

Philadelphia 1861: A Coming Storm;

June 2011-February 2012

Philadelphia 1862: A City at War;

March 2012-February 2013

Philadelphia 1863: Turning the Tide;

March 2013-February 2014

Philadelphia 1864: The Year of Decision;

March 2014-February 2015

1865: Triumph and Tragedy;

March 2015-February 2016

Sweep the Country: Political Conventions in Philadelphia;

March 2016-January 2017

Discovering Art in Philadelphia, Treasures from Private Collections;

March-August 2017

Risk & Reward: Entrepreneurship and the Making of Philadelphia;

October 2017-June 2018; Pictures

Carved in Stone: American Monuments, Myths & Memory;

October 2018-June 2019; Pictures

The current display is The Blue & Grey at Sea: Civil War Naval Battles; running from September 2019-June 2020. The exhibit explores the maritime strategy of the American Civil War. The Blue & Grey at Sea tells the stories of the great naval battles of the Civil War. Learn about the ships and the men that fought these battles. The exhibit features dozens of paintings, historic artifacts, and weapons. Pictures

Hours:

League members and their guests, Monday through Friday, 9am to 6pm and the second Saturday, 1pm to 4pm.

The exhibit is open to the public every Tuesday and Thursday, 3pm to 6pm and the second Saturday, 1pm to 4pm.